

Table of Contents

Introduction	III
Overview	V
The Editors and Authors	XVII

Chapter I The Arbitration Agreement and Arbitrability 1

Dieter Hofmann/Pascale Koester

Consumers in Arbitration – From a Swiss Perspective	3
I. Introduction	3
II. Consumer Law in Switzerland – A Brief Overview	3
A. Development and State of Swiss Consumer Law	3
B. Definitions of Consumer in Swiss Law	5
1. No Uniform Definition of Consumer	5
2. Scope of Application in Practice not Always Clear	7
III. Arbitrability of Consumer Disputes	7
A. Definitions of Arbitrability	7
B. Other Limits to Arbitrability of Consumer Disputes?	10
IV. Agreement to Arbitrate	12
A. Formal Requirements	12
B. Substantive Validity pursuant to Swiss Law	13
C. Arbitration Agreements in General Commercial Conditions	14
1. Valid Incorporation and Rule of Unusualness	14
2. Possible Review of Content	16
V. Practicability Issues: Unilateral Withdrawal from the Arbitration Clause	17
VI. Recent discussion: FIDLEG	18
VII. Conclusion	20

Nicolas W. Reithner/Gabriele Ehlich

Consumer Protection in Arbitration Proceedings in Liechtenstein	21
I. Introduction	21
II. General Overview of Consumer Protection	21
III. Consumer Protection in Arbitration Law	22
IV. Consumer Protection in Company Law	23
A. Is a Legal Entity under Private Law an Entrepreneur or a Consumer?	23
1. Legal Situation in Austria	23
2. Legal Situation in Liechtenstein	24
B. Arbitration Clauses in Statutes and Articles of Association	24
1. Legal Situation in Austria	25
2. Legal Situation in Liechtenstein	25
V. Law Reform in Liechtenstein	26
A. Consumers	26
B. Arbitrability of the Supervisory Proceedings for Foundations and Trusts	27

Michael Swangard/Tamsyn Pickford
Commodity Arbitrations	29
I. Introduction	29
II. An Outline of the Leading Commodity Associations	30
A. The Grain and Feed Trade Association (GAFTA)	30
B. The London Metal Exchange (LME)	30
C. The Coffee Trade Federation (CTF)	31
D. The Federation of Oils, Seeds and Fats Associations Limited (FOSFA)	31
E. The Federation of Cocoa Commerce (FCC)	32
F. The Refined Sugar Association (RSA) and the Sugar Association of London (SAL)	32
G. International Cotton Association (ICA)	32
H. The Combined Edible Nut Trade Association (CENTA)	33
III. Commodity Arbitration: Distinguishing Features	33
A. Commercial rather than legal tribunals	33
B. Curtailed Time Limits for Initiating Arbitration	35
C. Multi-tier Arbitrations Incorporating Appeal Procedures	36
D. The Exclusion of Legal Practitioners From Oral Hearings	39
E. String Arbitration/One Binding Award	40
F. Defaulter Posting	43
IV. Current Trends in Commodity Arbitration and Outlook	44
Chapter II The Arbitrator and the Arbitration Procedure	47
Peter Rees
Does Arbitration Deliver?	49
I. Introductory Examples	49
A. The Boston Shoe Repairer	49
B. The Dublin Jeweller	50
II. The Seven Advantages	51
III. Delivery	53
A. DHL	53
B. UPS	54
C. Austrian Postal Service – Österreichische Post AG	54
D. Royal College of Midwives	56
IV. Speed, Quality, Price. Pick Three	57
V. Albert Einstein	59
Ema Vidak-Gojkovic/Lucy Greenwood/Michael McIlwrath
Puppies or Kittens? How to Better Match Arbitrators to Party Expectations	61
I. How Uncertainty Over Arbitrator Soft Skills and Procedural Orientation Contributes to Dissatisfaction with International Arbitration	61
II. The Current Approach to Arbitrator Selection is Fundamentally Flawed	63
III. The Importance of Soft Skills and Knowing the Arbitrator’s Approach to Case Management	64
IV. The Puppy or Kitten Test: A Proposal for Arbitrators to Declare Their Case Management Preferences, If Any	67
A. Arbitrator Style and Preferences Questionnaire	69

B. Where Would This Information Be Available?	71
V. So Why Do It? Numerous Benefits of Making the Selection Process More Transparent	72
VI. Conclusion: An Opportunity for VIAC	74
Catherine A. Rogers
Transparency in Arbitrator Selection	75
I. The Steady March to Increased Transparency	75
A. The IBA Guidelines on Conflicts of Interest in International Arbitration (IBA Guidelines)	76
B. Other Transparency Innovations	77
II. Information and Transparency in Arbitrator Selection	79
A. Information and Feedback About Arbitrators	79
B. Arbitral Institutions and Limits on Information	80
C. Arbitrator Intelligence	81
1. Web-Based Information	81
2. Arbitral Awards	82
3. Feedback Questionnaires	82
III. A Final Note on Transparency and Diversity	84
Irene Welser/Alexandra Stoffl
Calderbank Letters and Baseball Arbitration – Effective Settlement Techniques? ...	87
I. The Importance of Special Settlement Techniques in International Arbitration ..	87
II. The Sealed Offer/Calderbank Letter	88
A. Origin and Underlying Principles	88
B. What is a Calderbank Letter or Sealed Offer?	89
C. How to Make a Sealed Offer?	90
D. Advantages of Sealed Offer Arbitration	92
E. Disadvantages of Sealed Offer Arbitration	92
III. Baseball Arbitration	94
A. What is Baseball Arbitration?	94
B. How to Conduct Baseball Arbitration	95
C. Advantages of Baseball Arbitration	96
D. Disadvantages of Baseball Arbitration	97
IV. Conclusion	98
Veit Öhlberger/Jarred Pinkston
Iura Novit Curia and the Non-Passive Arbitrator: A Question of Efficiency, Cultural Blinders and Misplaced Concerns About Impartiality	101
I. Introduction	101
II. What is Iura Novit Curia in the Context of International Arbitration?	102
III. Authority/Discretion to Apply Iura Novit Curia	104
A. Attempts to Extrapolate from Domestic Legal Regimes: Cultural Basis	104
B. National Arbitration Laws	106
C. International Tribunals	106
D. Arbitral Rules	107
E. General Discretion with Regard to Matters of Procedure	107
F. Conclusion on Authority	108
IV. Indirect Limitations to Apply Iura Novit Curia	108

A. Risks for the Arbitrator	108
B. Risks for the Award	109
C. Conclusion on Indirect Limitations	111
V. Suggestions of How to Mitigate Risks associated with Iura Novit Curia	112
A. Before Becoming Non-Passive	113
B. After Becoming Non-Passive	114
VI. Further Considerations on the Benefits of a Non-Passive Arbitrator	115
A. From the Overall Perspective	115
B. From the Parties' Perspective	115
C. From an Arbitrator's Perspective	116
VII. Conclusion	117
Chapter III The Award and the Courts	119
Markus Schifferl/Venus Valentina Wong
Decisions of the Austrian Supreme Court on Arbitration in 2014 and 2015	121
I. Right to be Heard	122
A. Facts of the Case	122
B. Decision of the Supreme Court	123
C. Additional Remarks	123
II. Challenge of Arbitrators	124
A. Facts of the Case	124
B. Decision of the Supreme Court	125
C. Additional Remarks	126
III. Indetermination of an Arbitration Clause	127
A. Facts of the Case	127
B. Decision of the Supreme Court	128
C. Additional Remarks	129
IV. Right to be Heard in Enforcement Proceedings	130
A. Facts of the Case	130
B. Decision of the Supreme Court	130
C. Additional Remarks	131
V. European Competition Law	132
A. Facts of the Case	132
B. Decision of the Supreme Court	134
C. Additional Remarks	136
VI. Arbitral Proceedings and Insolvency	137
A. Facts of the Cases	137
B. Decisions of the Supreme Court	138
C. Additional Remarks	140
Georg Naegeli/Simon Vorburger
When a Party to an International Arbitration Goes Bankrupt: A Swiss Perspective	143
I. Introduction	143
II. Situations Triggering Insolvency Law Issues in International Arbitration	144
III. The Effects of a Party's Insolvency on an International Arbitration	145
A. The Effects of the Insolvency on the Validity of Arbitration Agreements	145

1. Law Applicable to the Effects of an Insolvency on the Validity of an Arbitration Agreement	146
2. The Effects of an Insolvency on the Validity of the Arbitration Agreement under Swiss Law	147
B. The Effects of an Insolvency on the Capacity of a Party Subject to Insolvency Proceedings	147
1. Law Applicable to the Capacity of a Party Subject to Insolvency Proceedings	148
a) The Swiss Federal Supreme Court's Approach in the Vivendi Case	148
b) The Swiss Federal Supreme Court's New Approach in the Portuguese Case	149
c) Remaining Issues Under the Swiss Federal Supreme Court's New Approach	151
2. The Effects of an Insolvency on the Capacity of a Party to an Arbitration Under Swiss Law	152
C. The Scope Ratione Personae of the Arbitration Agreement in the Insolvency Context	152
1. Law Applicable to the Scope Ratione Personae of the Arbitration Agreement	152
2. Transfer of the Arbitration Agreement from the Debtor to the Insolvency Estate Under Swiss Law	154
D. The Scope Ratione Materiae of the Arbitration Agreement	156
1. Law Applicable to the Scope Ratione Materiae of the Arbitration Agreement	156
2. Types of Insolvency Law Actions Covered by the Scope Ratione Materiae of an Arbitration Agreement	157
3. Actions Arising Out of a Swiss Insolvency Covered by an Arbitration Agreement	158
E. Objective Arbitrability of Insolvency Law Actions	159
1. Law Applicable to Objective Arbitrability and Its Standards	159
2. Objective Arbitrability of Actions Arising Out of a Swiss Insolvency	161
F. Suspension of Arbitral Proceedings Upon the Commencement of an Insolvency	163
1. Law Applicable to A Suspension of the Arbitral Proceedings	163
2. Standards for a Suspension of the Arbitral Proceeding under the Swiss Lex Arbitri	164
3. Applicability of the Automatic Stay Provision of Swiss Insolvency Law to International Arbitration?	164
IV. Enforcement of an Arbitral Award in the Insolvency Context	166
A. Enforcement of an Arbitral Award Against a Party Subject to a Swiss Insolvency Proceeding	166
B. Enforcement of an Arbitral Award Against Assets Located in Switzerland Belonging to a Party Subject to Non-Swiss Insolvency Proceedings	169
C. Enforcement of an Arbitral Award Against Assets Located in Switzerland by the Foreign Trustee	170

Chapter IV Alternative Dispute Resolution	171
Alice Fremuth-Wolf/Anne-Karin Grill
Boosting Party Autonomy in ADR-Proceedings: The New Vienna Mediation Rules 2016 and Draft Guidelines for Neutral Evaluation	173
I. Introduction	173
II. The New Vienna Mediation Rules 2016	178
A. General Provisions (Articles 1, 2, 14)	178
B. Commencing the Proceedings (Article 3)	179
C. Appointment of the Mediator (Article 7)	180
D. Costs (Articles 4 and 8)	181
1. Registration Fee (Article 4)	181
2. Administrative Fees (Article 8 para. 6)	182
3. Mediator's Fees (Article 8 para. 8)	182
4. Use of Advance on Costs in Parallel Proceedings	183
5. No Double-Charging (Articles 4 para. 3 and 8 para. 10)	183
6. Award on Agreed Terms – Arbitrator's Fees (Article 8 para. 11)	183
7. Payment of the Advance on Costs (Article 8 para. 4)	184
8. Final Cost Allocation (Article 8 para. 9)	184
E. Place and Language of the Proceedings (Articles 5 and 6)	184
1. Place of Meetings and Sessions (Article 5)	184
2. Language of the Proceedings (Article 6)	185
F. Conduct of the Proceedings (Article 9)	185
G. Parallel Proceedings (Article 10)	187
H. Termination of the Proceedings (Article 11)	188
I. Confidentiality, Admissibility of Evidence and Subsequent Party Representation (Article 12)	189
J. Disclaimer (Article 13)	191
III. Draft NE-Guidelines	191
IV. Conclusion	193
ANNEX – VIAC Rules of Arbitration	194
Ulrike Gantenberg/Gustav Flecke-Giammarco
Dispute Boards Revival: Championing the Use of Dispute Adjudication Boards as a Project Management Tool That Helps to Avoid Disputes	201
I. Introduction	201
II. Salient Characteristics of DABs	202
III. General Structure of DAB Proceedings	205
IV. New ICC Dispute Board Rules	207
V. Other Areas in Which DABs Could Become a Useful Practice Tool	209
VI. Conclusion	212
Chapter V Investment Arbitration	215
John Beechey
TTIP-Myths and Facts: 2015 Bergsten Lecture, Vienna	217
I. The Myths and the Facts	219
A. Myth 1: Arbitration Operates Outside the Legal System	219

B. Myth 2: Arbitration Constitutes an Undesirable Limit to the Power of Sovereign States to Regulate the Public Interest	221
C. Myth 3: Arbitration is an Exercise in Secrecy	223
D. Myth 4: States Never Win	224
E. Myth 5: Foreign Investors Benefit From Superior Protection	225
F. Myth 6: Inconsistency	225
G. Myth 7: Arbitrators are Biased Against States	226
II. What Next?	227
III. Postscript	228
 Boris Kasolowsky/Amanda Neil
Pre-Award Transparency in Investment Arbitration from the Perspective of Parties and Counsel	231
I. Introduction	231
II. Distinguishing Post-Award Transparency and Pre-Award Transparency	232
III. The Push Towards Pre-Award Transparency	233
IV. The Cost of Pre-Award Transparency – The Loss of Efficiency and Effectiveness	236
A. Pre-Award Transparency Creates Lengthier, Costlier and More Complex Proceedings	237
1. Public Hearings	237
2. Amici Curiae	238
B. Pre-Award Transparency Makes Dispute Resolution More Difficult	240
1. Repoliticization of Disputes	240
2. Making Disputes Politically Unsettable	241
C. Differing Standards of Pre-Award Transparency Increase Confusion and a Lack of Coherence	242
V. Conclusion	243
 Constantin Eschlboeck
Repeal of Domestic Legislative Measures by Means of International Arbitration ...	245
I. The Problem	245
II. Specific Performance as the (Only) Appropriate Remedy	247
III. The Pacta Sunt Servanda Rule in the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties and the Idea of Negative Reciprocity	249
IV. The Doctrine of Self-Limitation	249
V. The Idea of Pacta Sunt Servanda Under the VCLT	250
VI. Good Faith as the Most Important Principle of Law	251
VII. Termination	253
VIII. Material Breach and Impossibility	254
IX. Fundamental Change of Circumstances	255
X. The Fitzmaurice Examples on the Fundamental Change of Circumstances ...	256
XI. The Juridical and Academic Recognition of the Fundamental Change of Circumstances Principle	257
XII. Fundamental Change of Circumstances and the Parties' Intention	259
XIII. Limits to the Rebus Sic Stantibus Principle	261
XIV. Primacy of International Law Over Domestic Law	262
XV. State Continuity	262
XVI. Conclusion: Pacta Sunt (Et Erunt) Servanda	264
XVII. The Real Problem: The Enforcement of an Award "Against Domestic Law" ...	265

XVIII. Public Policy	266
XIX. International Public Policy	266
XX. The Recommendations of the ILAC	267
XXI. Arbitral Award and Enforcement of Administrative Notices	269
XXII. Summary	270

N. Jansen Calamita/Ewa Zelazna

The Changing Landscape of Transparency in Investor-State Arbitration:

The UNCITRAL Transparency Rules and Mauritius Convention	271
I. Introduction	271
II. Normative Arguments Driving Increased Transparency in Investment Treaty Arbitration	273
A. Promotion of Good Governance	274
B. Business and Human Rights	275
C. Legitimacy of Investor-State Arbitration	276
D. Regulatory Predictability	276
E. Equality and Fairness in Arbitration	277
F. State Treaty Development	277
III. Developments Relating to Transparency in Treaty-based Arbitration	278
A. Dispute Settlement Transparency Provisions in Investment Treaties	278
B. The Treatment of Transparency in Arbitral Rules	280
IV. The UNCITRAL Rules on Transparency	281
A. Public Access to Documents and Hearings	281
B. Exceptions to Public Access to Documents and Hearings under Art 7	282
C. Participation by Third Persons and Non-disputing Parties to the Treaty ...	283
D. UNCITRAL Rules on Transparency – Application	285
V. The Mauritius Convention	286
VI. Conclusion	288

Andrea K. Bjorklund

NAFTA Chapter XI's Contribution to Transparency in Investment Arbitration	291
I. Transparency Generally	292
A. Substantive Transparency	293
B. Procedural Transparency	294
C. The Question of Amicus Curiae	294
II. Transparency Under NAFTA	294
A. Access to Information Laws	295
B. NAFTA Transparency Prior to Clarification	295
C. Clarification Re Procedural Transparency	298
D. NAFTA and Amicus Curiae Participation	299
III. Some Consequences of Transparency	303
A. Settlement	303
B. Complexity and Cost	304
C. Contribution to the Development of the Law	306
D. "Issue" and Other Conflicts	306
IV. Conclusion	309

Chapter VI 10 Years Austrian Yearbook of International Arbitration	311
Christian Klausegger/Ruth Mahfoozpour
10 Years Austrian Yearbook on International Arbitration: Abstracts 2007–2016	313
I. The Arbitration Agreement and Arbitrability	313
II. The Arbitrator and the Arbitration Proceeding	322
III. The Award and the Courts	340
IV. Alternative Dispute Resolution	348
V. Investment Arbitration	350
VI. Arbitration and Crime	355
VII. Issues Specific to Arbitration in Europe	356
Annex	359
Alfred Siwy
Recent Publications	361
Index 2007–2016	369